

Round Table on Quality Foreign Languages Teaching

We would like to invite you to join us at the round table dealing with current issues in quality foreign languages education. The table is held by the AMATE association of teacher educators, which is celebrating its 10th anniversary this year.

Among the participants we would like to name mainly the Minister of Education, Josef Dobeš, and the head of the British Council CR, Nigel Bellingham; then the representatives of CERMAT, The Czech School Inspection, National Institute of Further Education, The Research Institute of Education, associations of language teachers and others.

The round table will be held on Friday, September 9, 11.00 – 14.30 at the Pedagogical Faculty of Masaryk University in Brno, Poříčí 9.

Participants are offered to present their area of expertise in about 10 – 20 minutes; the presentations to be followed by discussion. The topics will be e.g. teacher training, Maturita exam and assessment, international projects and cooperation in the area of foreign language teaching. The discussion will be held in Czech.

Registration deadline is July 27, 2011. The registration email must contain your name, address and preferred email contact. All registrations are sent to kulatystul@gmail.com; in case you deliver a presentation, please attach a brief summary of your presentation.
